Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Resource Conservation and Development Councils (RC&Ds) have contributed countless hours of community service to help people care for and protect their natural resources in a way that will improve the area's economy, environment, and living standards since 1964; and,

Whereas, Resource Conservation and Development Councils provide a way for people to work together to plan and carry out activities that has made our state a better place to live; and,

Whereas, The Randall Area Resource Conservation and Development Council is one of the first original ten Resource Conservation Development Councils in this area of the United States, with an office located in Lake Andes, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, During the week of July 11-17, across the nation, Resource Conservation and Development Councils are performing community service projects to improve their communities; and,

Whereas, The Resource Conservation Development Councils deserve congratulations for their continued success in brightening the future of our communities by bringing together diverse groups of local volunteers to strengthen the spirit of community service in South Dakota, not only this week, but throughout the year:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 11-17, 2004, as in South Dakota.

RESOURCE CONSERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT COUNCILS WEEK

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
